

KRHS Counselor is named “Counselor of Sussex County”

On May 19th, Jolene Hegarty was recognized by the New Jersey School Counselor Association (NJSCA). She was named “Counselor of the County” for Sussex County, NJ.

This award recognizes counselors who encourage their students. What makes this award special is she was selected by those who know her best- her peers at the county association. The association evaluates three characteristics of the candidates:

- Academic development
- Career counseling
- Advocating for their students

Ms. Hegarty attended the awards ceremony held at New Jersey City University. At the luncheon, she received this plaque of appreciation for all her work with the students’ at KRHS.

Congratulations Ms. Hegarty! The Cougar family values your dedication to our students and our school.
