

Savannah Febles Wins "Scariest Jack"

Who doesn't remember the scene in the classic Stephen King horror film "Carrie" when she is covered in blood at the prom? Savannah Febles captured that exact moment in her Halloween Jack-O-Lantern she submitted to the second annual Crystal Springs Pumpkin Carving Contest.

Here is Savannah's entry by day and by night.

Art students from local high schools submitted 120 Jack-O-Lanterns into the contest. There were three awards given:

- Scariest Jack
- Silliest Jack
- Best Overall Team Collection

Allison Lombard submitted "Pennywise" to the competition. She also received a high number of votes for her entry.

In addition, here are some of the additional Jack-O-Lanterns carved by KRHS art students. These students created these pieces on their own time and demonstrate the talented artists we have at the school.

Thank you to all the students who made the time to create these Halloween masterpieces. Thank you to Ms. Anderson for delivering all the works of art safely to the venue.
