

Taylor Cooper Signs with Albertus Magnus College

It's official! Taylor Cooper will be playing Lacrosse for the Albertus Magnus College Falcons in New Haven, Connecticut this fall. Everyone gathered around as she signed her official letter of intent for this NCAA DIII school.

Albertus Magnus College was founded in 1924. The campus is set on fifty acres in a beautiful suburban neighborhood. Approximately, fifteen hundred students attend this college annually.

Congratulations to Taylor Cooper! KRHS Board of Education, faculty, administration, staff, and students wish you well in college.
