Three KRHS juniors have been selected to perform with the Mixed All-State Choir. High school choir members from throughout New Jersey auditioned for a spot in this very special experience. The challenging audition had four components:

- Solo
- Part holding
- Scales
- Total memory

Jody Hagler, Jessica Thompson, and Maddie Sellers were all selected to sing Alto 1.

The students and their families leave today for Atlantic City. They will rehearse with the All-State Mixed Choir for three days and perform on Friday, November 10 at 8:30 pm at the Convention Center. The students are excited to be a part of this special event.
