

KRHS Artists Recognized

This past Friday the KRHS art department was invited to participate in the Walkkill Valley Regional High School's 7th Annual High School Art Show.

There was over 130 pieces of art work from the following categories:

- Drawing/Illustration
- Painting
- Pottery/Sculpture
- Photography (Both digital & manual)
- Crafts (Glass, Jewelry, basketry, etc.)
- Open (Printmaking, Collage, etc.)
- Graphic Arts

This year, Mrs. Anderson is pleased to announce that Kittatinny took FIRST, SECOND, AND THIRD place in the Sculpture division!!!!!!! Making it a clean sweep!

Emily Jerger took 1st for "Strangle Hold" a handbuilt ceramic dragon wrapped around a handbuilt vase. (Coil Method)

Sabrina Leonard took 2nd place for her 9 piece wheel thrown Teapot Set

Cheryl Stober took 3rd place for her rendition of "Poseidon's Chalice" a handbuilt ceramic Octopus Goblet

In the junior high division, Michael Mangino took 2nd place in the Crafts division.

If you see these students feel free to congratulate them!!

Certificates were awarded in each category, as well as Best in Show. Representatives from Sussex County Community College, Delaware College of Art and Design, Marywood University, William Paterson University, Art Etc. Gallery, & Peter's Valley were there. There were also representatives from additional schools there to discuss college entrance requirements to their universities.