

YAM

Every year the Art Educators of New Jersey display the work of select art students to celebrate Youth Art Month. Besides highlighting the talent of many students, this occasion reminds everyone of the significance of arts education and advocates for quality educational programs.

This year three Kittatinny students had their artwork displayed at the Annex of the Statehouse from March 1-March 8. Those artists are:

| Student              | Category             | Title                      | Grade   |
|----------------------|----------------------|----------------------------|---------|
| Alexa Babcock | Scratchboard Drawing | Queen of the Jungle | Tenth   |
| Kora Garcia   | Watercolor           | Childhood Memories  | Seventh |
| Camryn Ricard | Pencil Drawing       | C.M. Sprouse        | Eighth  |

An Awards Ceremonies was held on March 8th with guest speaker Rashad Malik Davis an artist/illustrator. Kora Garcia, Camryn Ricard, and Alexa Babcock were honored at the State House, in Trenton. This is a prestigious honor. Out of hundreds of entries, Kittatinny had three pieces selected for Youth art month. Only six pieces were chosen to represent Sussex County and Kittatinny took half!

If you would like to see these pieces in person, another ceremony will be held at the Judicial Center in Newton on March 21st at 6:00 pm.
